

RSM NOTE

Dear Residents,

Warmest Greetings from The Pakubuwono House!

We would like to extend our highest appreciation to all Residents, who have been with us from the beginning and through this hard time together. Your continuous support and cooperation make The Pakubuwono House as the most convenient home.

In this opportunity, we would like to say "HAPPY EASTER" for all who celebrate. We wish you and your family the happiest & blessed Easter for all. And also we would like to say "HAPPY FASTING" to all who celebrate. May the spirit of Ramadan illuminate the world and show us the way to peace and harmony.

Last but not least, please feel free to contact myself or any of my colleagues if you have any requests or concerns. We will be happy to assist you with my best personal wishes.

Sincerely,

Birgitta Adisty
Resident Service Manager

Easter is filled with traditions, and that extends to the dinner table. When you're looking for ideas to build your Easter dinner menu, look no further than this recipe collection. From traditional Easter bread to ham and lamb entrees, tasty side dishes, tempting desserts, and holiday-centric drinks, our favorite Easter recipes celebrate the best foods of spring, and will cover you every course.

Tips & Tricks

Easter Dinner Ideas

1. Basil Lemonade

Bright and invigorating, this basil lemonade is ideal for Easter dinner. It's easy as any other lemonade recipe, but with a basil lemon simple syrup. Add extra flavor with citrus like limes, oranges, or grapefruit, or whole fruits like berries. You can even make it boozy with a splash of bourbon, vodka, or gin.

2. Easy Vegan Spinach Dip

We love just about any way to eat more greens, and we love the convenience of using frozen chopped spinach in just about any way, including this recipe. In this simple and easy vegan spinach dip, you use a vegan packaged soup mix, frozen spinach, and a non-dairy sour cream and just mix it all up together. It really couldn't possibly be easier or more foolproof.

3. Super Easy Pea and Mint Soup

Sweet, velvety, and bright, pea and mint soup is a refreshing starter for the holiday meal. You can use frozen peas for this rustic soup that comes together easily on the stove-top, and finishes in the blender. Garnish with freshly cracked black pepper and Parmesan cheese for fantastic first course. The soup can be made and chilled up to 3 days ahead, and leftovers taste great warmed up or eaten cold.

4. Baked Macaroni and Cheese

Baked macaroni and cheese with a rich and cheesy sauce is a thing of beauty, with or without the optional browned breadcrumb topping. It is a popular side dish for Easter ham, and freezes beautifully or making ahead of the holidays.

5. Roasted Leg of Lamb

Roasted leg of lamb is one of the easiest "special occasion" recipes especially for Easter dinner. The simple herb, lemon, and garlic marinade is all this great cut of lamb needs before it's roasted to pink perfection.

6. Honey Butter Ham

This delicious and simple way to turn a plain cooked ham into something special for Easter. Because it all starts with a fully cooked ham from the store, all you need to do is stir together the glaze and roast until caramelized to perfection.

7. Best Carrot Cake

Carrot cake is just what the Easter bunny ordered. Super moist, and spiced to perfection, with three layers of colorful, carrotty crumb, and topped with a luscious, tangy cream cheese frosting. It's the kind of cake of which dreams (and bake sale profits) are made.

8. Ukranian Easter Babka

Ukrainian babka and paska are two sweet yeast breads served at Easter. Unlike fluted Polish babka, Ukrainian babka is tall and cylindrical like Italian panettone. You can ice or serve plain with butter or jam.

Ramadan is the most important month in the Islamic calendar, a time for fasting during the day and feasting after sunset and until sunrise. During that whole month, sweets occupy an important place in people's lives. These date-filled cookies are a typical Ramadan sweet. If you can't find date paste use an equal amount of pitted dates and process with cinnamon and butter in a food processor until a smooth paste forms.

Recipe

Ramadan Date Cookies

Ingredients

Dough

- 2 cups (350 g) semolina flour
- ¼ cup (50 g) baker's sugar of superfine sugar
- ¼ tsp. active dry yeast
- ¼ cup plus 1 Tbsp. (50 g) all-purpose flour, plus more surface
- ½ cup (1 stick) plus 2 Tbsp. unsalted butter, room temperature
- 3 Tbsp. orange blossom water
- 3 Tbsp. rose water

Date Filling and Assembly

- 12 oz dried date paste
- ½ tsp. ground cinnamon
- 2 Tbsp. unsalted butter, melted

Preparation

Dough:

1. Mix semolina flour, sugar, yeast, and ¼ cup plus 1 Tbsp. all-purpose flour in a large bowl.
2. Add butter and work it in with your fingertips until fully incorporated.
3. Add orange blossom and rose water.
4. Knead dough in bowl until smooth and elastic.
5. Roll dough into a ball and place seam side down on a lightly floured work surface. Cover with a very damp cloth and let rest in a cool place 1,5 hours.

Date Filling and Assembly:

1. Combine date paste and cinnamon in a small bowl. Gradually add butter, working it in by hand until a smooth, soft paste forms.
2. Pinch off a small piece and shape into a disk 1 ½ " (3,5 cm) in diameter and about ¼ " (6 mm) thick.
3. Transfer to a plate.
4. Repeat process with remaining paste (you should have 4 disks).
5. Cover with plastic wrap.

Process

1. Preheat oven to 400° . Pinch off a piece of dough and roll into a walnut sized ball.
2. Flatten on your palm to form a 3" (7,5 cm) disk about ¼ " (6 mm) thick.
3. Lay a date disk in center of dough.
4. Fold edges of dough over date to cover.
5. Pinch edges together- the date disk should be covered with an even layer dough.
6. Lightly press into cookie mold.
7. Turn mold over and tap top edge lightly against work surface while holding your other hand underneath to catch dough as it falls out of mold.
8. Slide dough onto a parchmen-lined bakinf sheet or silicone baking mat.
9. Repeat with remaining dough and disks.
10. Bake cookies until lightly golden, 15-18 minutes. Transfer to a wire rack and let cool.
11. Cookies can be made 2 weeks ahead. Store in an airtight container at room temperature.

ACTIVITIES @ THE PAKUBUWONO HOUSE

To : All Residents of The Pakubuwono House
Subject : Easing Health Protocol During PPKM Level 2

Dear Residents,

The Government of Indonesia has announced that COVID-19 restrictions in some areas, including DKI Jakarta, will be eased following a slowing of infection rates. In line with this policy, please be informed that we will implement some adjustments of restriction at The Pakubuwono House effective from March 9, 2022:

1. Guest, Visitor, Resident's staff (including live out maid and driver) are admitted to enter the premise by showing certificate of COVID-19 vaccine from Peduli Lindungi Apps. For those who have not been vaccinated yet, must show proof of negative test (Antigen/PCR) no more than 7 (seven) days from the test result issued. The Building Management provides the swab antigen test charged of IDR 50.000 with schedule as below:
  - Monday – Friday : 09:00 – 16:00 (break time 11:30 – 13:00)
  - Saturday : 09:00 – 13:00 (break time 11:00 – 12:00)
  - Sunday & PH : OFF
2. The above policy also applies for Owners who are not Resident of The Pakubuwono House (include Weekend Home).
3. Coach/personal trainer are required to present the proof of negative test (Antigen/PCR) no more than 1 day from the test result issued for the first visit. And required to present the proof of negative test (Antigen/PCR) every month to the Club Attendant in the future.
4. Function and Chef Room are open for reservation.

We seek your cooperation for the health and safety of all members of The Pakubuwono House by always wearing mask, maintain social distancing, avoiding crowds and washing your hands frequently.

Thank you for continuous support and cooperation.

Best regards,

Building Management

Did U Know ?

“April Fool’s Day”

April Fool’s Day is an annual custom on 1 April consisting of practical jokes and hoaxes. Jokesters often expose their actions by shouting “April Fools!” at the recipient. Mass media can be involved in these pranks, which may be revealed as such the following day. The day is not a public holiday in any country except Odessa, Ukraine, where the first April is an official city holiday. The custom of setting aside a day for playing harmless pranks upon one’s neighbour has been relatively common in the world historically.

A disputed association between 1 April and foolishness is in Geoffrey Chaucer’s The Canterbury Tales (1392). In the “Nun’s Priest’s Tale”, a vain cock Chauntecleer is tricked by a fox on “Syn March bigan thritty dayes and two”, i.e. 32 days since March began, which is 1 April.

However, it is not clear that Chaucer was referencing 1 April since the text of the “Nun’s Priest’s Tale” also states that the story takes place on the day when the sun is “in the signe of Taurus had y-runne Twenty degrees and one”, which would not be 1 April. Modern scholars believe that there is a copying error in the extant manuscripts and that Chaucer actually wrote, “Syn March was gon”. If so, the passage would have originally meant 32 days after March, i.e. 2 May, the anniversary of the engagement of King Richard II of England to Anne of Bohemia, which took place in 1381.

In the UK, an April Fool prank is sometimes later revealed by shouting “April fool!” at the recipient, who becomes the “April Fool”. A study in the 1950s, by folklorists Iona and Peter Opie, found that in the UK, and in countries whose traditions derived from the UK, the joking ceased at midday. This continues to be the practice, with the custom ceasing at noon, after which time it is no longer acceptable to play pranks. This a person playing a prank after midday is considered the “April fool” themselves.

As well as people playing pranks on one another on April Fools Day, elaborate pranks have appeared on radio and TV stations, newspaper, and websites, and have been performed by large corporations. In one famous prank in 1957, the BBC broadcast a film in their Panorama current affairs series purporting to show Swiss farmers picking freshly-grown spaghetti, in what they called the Swiss spaghetti harvest. The BBC was soon flooded with requests to purchase a spaghetti plant, forcing them to declare the film a hoax on the news the next day. With the advent of the Internet and readily available global news service, April Fools’ pranks can catch and embarrass a wider audience than ever before.

“National Fisherman Day”

Every April 6, Indonesia commemorates National Fisherman Day. In 2019, the commemoration was used as a momentum for the rise of fisherman in Indonesia, especially after the government has supported the welfare of fishermen and their family members through various policies. The 2012 data of the Food and Agriculture Organization shows that Indonesia is ranked third in the world in fisheries production, below China and India. This potential should make Indonesian fishermen able to produce large quantities of fish which can ultimately improve their welfare.

In article 33 paragraph (3) of the 1945 Constitution, it is stated that the earth and water and natural resources contained therein are controlled by the state and are used for the prosperity of the people.

However, it cannot be denied that Indonesia’s marine wealth is dominated by some foreign parties. Some of them are illegal and they tend to prioritize personal and group interests. From January to April 2019, 27 illegal vessels were captured when attempting to illegally steal fish resources. Indonesia is a country rich in marine wealth. Geographically, Indonesia is an archipelagic country with two-thirds of its territory consisting of oceans, larger than land. This can be seen by the presence of coastlines on almost every island in Indonesia, with a total length of approximately 81,000 kilometers. This makes Indonesia second only to Canada as the country that has the longest coastline in the world. This has become Indonesia’s great strength and potential to advance its economy.

The capture carried out by the Ministry of Maritime Affairs and Fisheries (KKP) against foreign vessels carrying out illegal fishing shows the government’s attention in improving services and protection of Indonesian fishermen. Fish theft carried out by foreign vessels certainly reduces the produce of Indonesian fishermen. The arrest also shows the presence of the state amidst the national fishermen.

The 2019 National Fisherman Day must be a great momentum for the rise of Indonesian fishermen to be sovereign in their own country, especially by continuing to expel foreign ships that illegally search Indonesia’s marine resources. Happy National Fisherman Day.
